

The book cover is a dark blue, textured material. It features a grid of 16 small, square embossed illustrations arranged in four rows and four columns. Each illustration depicts a different scene or figure, possibly from classical or religious art. A large, dark blue diagonal banner with the title 'THE ECHO' in white, bold, sans-serif capital letters is positioned across the center. The banner has a slight 3D effect, with a visible shadow on the right side. At the bottom of the cover, there are four small, circular embossed marks, possibly for binding or decoration.

DEDICATION—2 00 P. M.

Articles of Dedication

When the need for a new high school in the Dubois community became an absolute necessity, a meeting was called and representatives of the state department of education were consulted about possible procedures.

After numerous meetings a holding company, known as the Harbison School Building Corporation, was formed. The incorporation stock was set at $5,000 and the bond issue was established at $190,000. The bonds were sold to an Indianapolis firm.

A petition was circulated among the taxpayers of Harbison Township and when the response was almost unanimous in approval of the project, the architect was hired and bids for building were taken.

On September 10 the contract was awarded to William Elledge of French Lick for $163,821. Included in this figure was the heating and plumbing by Cleo Quinn of Shoals for $44,596 and the electrical work to the Huebner and Kidwell company of Loogootee at $15,968.

Due to inclement weather, work on the building was not actually started until March 23, 1959. The building was completed in time for school on August 31, 1959.

Many people are responsible for this building, but the plaque in the hall lists the following:

CLASS HISTORY

In September of 1956, 48 Freshmen entered a building where they would be spending three years of their high school life. We were greeted by the following faculty members: A. J. Kreitzer, Principal; Ralph Seger, Coach, Commerce; Wilma Beckman, Home Economics; Henry Seger, English; Elmer Zehr, Social Studies; Paul Phillips, Mathematics; Richard Kemper, Music; John Lyons, Commerce; and Aaron Parks, Vocational Agriculture.

Mr. John Lyons was our class sponsor. The following were elected class officers: Pres.--Fred Harder, Vice-President--Leon Seitz, Secretary--Ruth Hemmerlein, Treasurer--Sue Harder, Reporters--Jeannie Beckman and Kenny Traylor. Queen Attendants were Sue Harder and Mary Ruth Vogel. Gene Sendelweck and Fred Harder represented us at the Algebra contest.

In September of 1957 we entered Dubois High School again but this time as Sophomores. During the summer we had lost William Terwiske, William Kane, and by the end of the year we were to lose Helen Jones. Class officers were President--Bill Kalb, Vice-President--Don Eisenhut, Secretary--Bill Petry, Treasurer--Leon Seitz, Reporters--Joan Hasenour and Pat Schnell. Paul Phillips was our class sponsor. Ruth Hemmerlein and JoAnn Bair were our Queen attendants.

Norman Sendelweck and Margaret Stamm represented us at the Latin contest at Jasper. In the Geometry contest Gene Sendelweck and Fred Harder represented Dubois.

As Jolly Juniors we returned to find that Gerald Haase, Pat Schnell, Bill Hochgesang, Perry Knies, Bill Neukam and Linda Huff would not be with us, but we gained Mrs. Rose Mary Harris. The faculty changes were Miss Marlyn Martin replaced Mrs. Wilma Beckman and Mr. Howard Anderson replaced Mr. John Lyons.

Our Class sponsor was Mr. Henry Seger and class officers were President--Leon Seitz, Vice-President--Fred Harder, Secretary--JoAnn Bair, Treasurer--Kenny Traylor, Reporters--Ima Jean Fuhrman and Sue Harder. Queen attendants were Sue Harder and Margie Humbert. Jo Ann Bair was elected cheerleader from our class. Under the direction of A. J. Krietzer we presented our class play "Finders Creepers" on April 24 and 25.

We closed our Junior year with entertaining the Senior Class at our Junior-Senior Banquet-Prom.

Upon returning as Seniors we found that we had a new building in which to spend our last year at D.H.S. When the roll was taken we learned that Jeannie Beckman would not be with us. James Cawood replaced Ralph Seger as Coach and Commerce teacher.

Mr. Elmer Zehr was our class sponsor. Class officers were President--Bill Kalb, Vice-President--Gene Sendelweck, Secretary--Bill Petry, Treasurer--Norman Sendelweck, Reporters--Sue Harder, Mary Ruth Vogel, and Margaret Stamm.

"Here Comes Charlie" our Senior Class play was presented on Oct. 29 and 30 under the direction of Mr. Henry Seger. JoAnn Bair was again chosen cheerleader. Under the direction of A. J. Kreitzer we started work on the Jeep Echo and The Echo.

At the Huntingburg Christmas Festival on December 5, Margie Humbert represented our school as Holiday Queen. Margaret Stamm represented our class as the DAR Good Citizen.

Mary Ruth Vogel was crowned Basketball Queen on January 15, 1960 with Ruth Hemmerlein and Ima Jean Fuhrman as her Senior Attendants.

The Senior members of the Beta Club enjoyed seeing the Ice Review. Jo Ann Bair and Bill Kalb were crowned Prom King and Queen at the Junior-Senior Banquet-Prom.

The Baccalaureate services were held on May 8. This was followed by the Commencement on May 10, at which time Margaret Stamm gave the Valedictory and Gene Sendelweck gave the Salutatory.

We are happy that we were privileged to be the first class to graduate from the new Dubois High School building and wish to express our collective appreciation to the people who made it possible. May we strive to serve the community and school in direct proportion to what they have given us.

We the Seniors of 1960, of the Dubois High School, State of Indiana, hereby make, publish and declare this our last will and testament. To the faculty we will our excuses, which we are so good at making. To the Juniors we will our ability to get along with teachers, our salesmanship, and all our senior dignity. To the Sophomores we will our dislike for getting down to business. To the Freshmen three more long years of study and happy school adventures.

To the cooks and the janitor, all our old gum and scuff marks that we may have left behind.

More specifically and individually we leave the following:

- I, Joann Artmeier leave my long hair to Mary Lou Jones.
