1987

Jasper High School is the composer of many wonderful memories of our young adult years. JHS brings us together through our classes, organizations, sports, and many other activities we are involved in throughout our four years of high school. We learn to stand by each other and to support each other in all our endeavors. May we always be blessed with memories as wonderful as those created at Jasper High School.

School Spirit

After receiving "Good Luck" balloons before Sectional play, Senior basketball players Phil Mehringer, Randy Bauer, John Buechlein, Mike Ficker, Max Verkamp, and Jason Lents listen to Coach Yarbrough's words of encouragement.

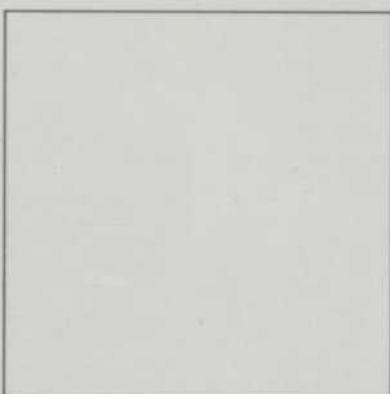

Junior Chris Friedman shows the studious side of school spirit at JHS.

Mrs. Deborah Nordhoff prepares to say a word of thanks after winning the plaque in the Faculty dress-up contest.

Football Homecoming

On a damp, dismal Friday evening, October 3, 1986, the Jasper High School Student Council crowned Ranae Heim and Jason Lents Homecoming Queen and King. As the band played "The Greatest Love of All," the candidates and their escorts crossed a rain soaked field which had been resurfaced by the valiant efforts of the victorious J.H.S. football team. The King and Queen were crowned by Clare Backer and Joe Schuler. The Homecoming Court was introduced by Kevin Voges.

Football Homecoming Displays

As in the past, all four classes assembled fine Homecoming displays. Congratulations goes to the Class of '87 for their winning display. This display led the Wildcat team to a 19-0 win over rival Gibson Southern.

Class of '87

The Senior Class keeps up the tradition with its winning display.

Class of '90

The Freshman Class showed the Wildcats' climb to the top.

Class of '89

The Sophomore Class captured the true power of the Wildcat team.

Class of '88

The wind played havoc on the towering junior display, "Liberty Cat," to the point where it was almost destroyed and had to be torn down.

Basketball Homecoming

The Jasper High School Student Council held its annual Basketball Homecoming on January 31, 1987. Mark Hochgesang sang the theme song, "Earth Angel." The Freshman Court consisted of Kyle Heichelbech and Kori Spindler and Brian Uebelhor and Karla Boyles. Craig Gruelich and Beth Stenftenagel and Amy Beckman and Mark Mendel comprised the Sophomore Court. The Juniors were represented by Greg Mathies and Tricia Herbig and Vicki Mehringer and Kenny Wigand.

Senior members of the Court were Kenny Eckerle and Pam Messmer, Scott Wagner and Christy Waddell, and Chris Mathies and Tricia Berger. They were introduced by Kevin Voges and Tammy Giesler. Christy Waddell and Scott Wagner were chosen Queen and King and were crowned by Max Verkamp and Ann Lechner. Ball Carriers and Crown Bearer were Kyle Brames and Kelly Seger.

Prom 1987

The Junior Class sponsored Prom on Saturday, May 2. The theme of the Prom was "Stand By Me." The Senior Class King and Queen were Bob Drew and Carol Meeks. The Junior Class Prince and Princess were Brian Drew and Courtney Hochgesang. Everyone seemed to enjoy the school decorated in the French cafe motif.

Carol Meeks and Bob Drew were selected as Queen and King.

Jutta Eisenring and her date sparkle and glow to the glitz and glamour of the Prom.

Stand By Me

Angie Werner and Stephanie Weisman, along with their dates, are dipping up their favorite drink—"punch a la gold-fish."

Couples seem to be enjoying themselves during a slow dance.

Katie Sullivan takes the time to reminisce about the past year as she gazes across the room.

Beth Riffel is showing off the beautiful rose her date gave her.

Stacie Elliott, Jana Giesler, and their dates are in a state of bliss.

"Jasper High School symbolizes many things to the Class of 1987. It has provided us with many opportunities to learn and grow both in and out of the classroom. We have worked hard and have seen what hard work can do for us. We would like to thank the parents and teachers who have made our high school days four of the most memorable years of our lives."

In Memory of

ROGER WIGAND

(1968-1986)

Elegy

A youth untried upon the Earth,
Marred by the axe of modern men,
And, although born of humble birth,
Who knows what might have been.

The time has passed to call his name,
Awaiting him with eager eyes,
And, though the memories will remain,
They shan't be used as alibis.

How we all must search within,
For the next ones could be we,
And, though untouched by those who sin,
We'll stand by His decree.

—Eric Stone

Let us set aside a moment in our lives to remember Roger, whose untimely death abruptly ended the private ambitions of a fellow classmate and a good friend. Those who knew him well will affirm his high standards and lively personality. Their lives are forever changed by his presence. May a part of him live within each of us, and may memories of him stay with us for the rest of our lives.

After an emotional speech by Max Verkamp, the class shows their support and their understanding of the mixed feelings felt on such a special occasion.

As May approaches, seniors look forward to the arrival of commencement. Friendships have grown over the past years, and the ultimate moment of sharing has come—graduation. Sherri Henke and Jane Jackle shared this special moment together by discussing the fun times they'd had throughout high school.

Part of graduation is the congratulations one receives from the people involved in his life. Coletta Dugan is starting early by gathering extra hand shakes before commencement even starts.

Part of commencement is set aside for speakers from the class. Terra Spindler reflected over the past years of high school while Max Verkamp pulled the class into the future. Darla Patterson and Stephanie Weisman also reflected over memories as they spoke at commencement.

The Class of 1987 will always remember May 22, 1987, as a special moment in their lives, and they shall look to the future to continue their success.

Graduation

Opening the commencement exercises for the Class of '87 were the flower girls, Ann Lechner, Kristie Rolan, and Melissa Pickett.

The most difficult part about preparing for commencement was putting on the tricky collars the girls had to wear. Jane Mundy is helped by Dana Rasche through this difficult maneuver.

Senior Dance

The seniors look forward every year to the Senior Dance. This year was no exception. The seniors partied, danced until they were wet with sweat, and screamed their hearts out to celebrate one of their final moments together.

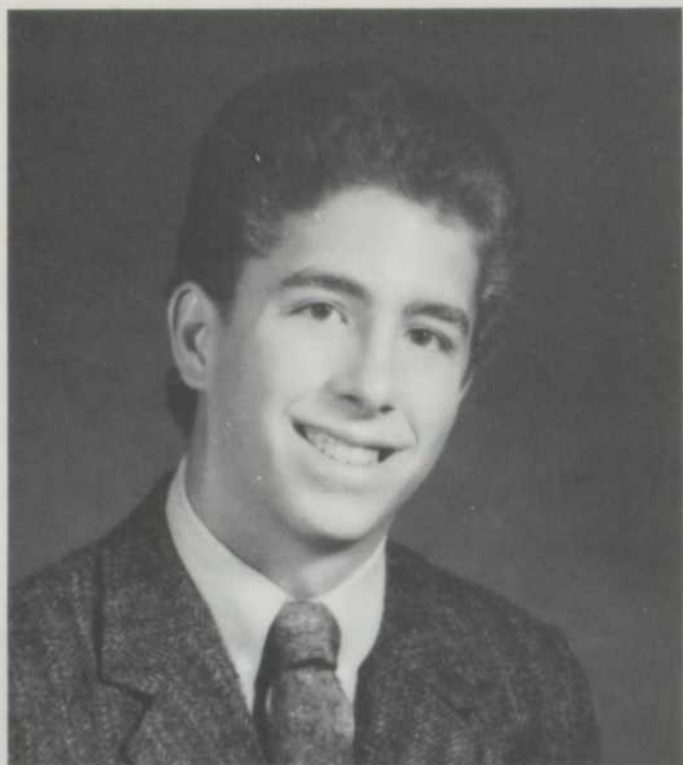

Honors Day and Awards Day programs occur at the end of each school year. Students receive scholarships, awards, and certificates to recognize them for their achievements during their high school years.

"Our attitude overall this year was excellent. Everyone did their part to accomplish our goal (Prom), and it made the officers' jobs a lot easier. Our class will surely be an interesting senior class next year. The Class of 1988 will continue to grow and develop, and it will definitely make its contributions in the years to come."

Cheerleaders

Varsity Cheerleaders: Phil Stutz and Barbie Nonte, Bart Schmitt and Dana Rasche, Doug Freyberger and Ranae Heim, Joe Schuler and Terra Spindler, and Mark Hochgesang and Andrea Mattingly.

"Gimme a J!"

Sound like the beginning of a familiar cheer at JHS? Of course it does. The Varsity Cheerleaders are responsible for providing the booms and bangs which give the teams support. They bring the crowd to its feet as the players provide the action for the tension-packed games. From rainy football games to crowded basketball games, the cheerleaders boost the spirits of the crowd and teams. Three cheers for the cheerleaders!

Mark Hochgesang, Joe Schuler, and Bart Schmitt discuss the possibility that they may be cheering at the funeral of the other team during a home football game.

JV Cheerleaders: Lesley Flannagan, Emily Thyen, Karen Berger, and Jodi Schwenk.

In the final game of the football season, Bart Schmitt, Doug Freyberger, and Kevin Voges show their support for the team.

Being an alternate for the Varsity is becoming a very difficult task, as shown by Emily Thyen.

Boys' Cross Country Brings Home the Gold!

The goal for the cross country season was to improve with each meet. The team's goal was definitely accomplished. The team finished third in the Big Eight and qualified for Regional. The most outstanding individual runners were Brad and Brian Traylor who made All Conference. Overall, the team finished the season with a 91-27 record. When asked to comment on the winning season, coach Sonny Lents was quoted as saying "Jasper Cross Country will be in Heaven in 1987!"

Brad Traylor gets his second wind and tries to overcome his opponent.

Girls' Cross Country Is Offered

Juli Burke runs that extra mile.

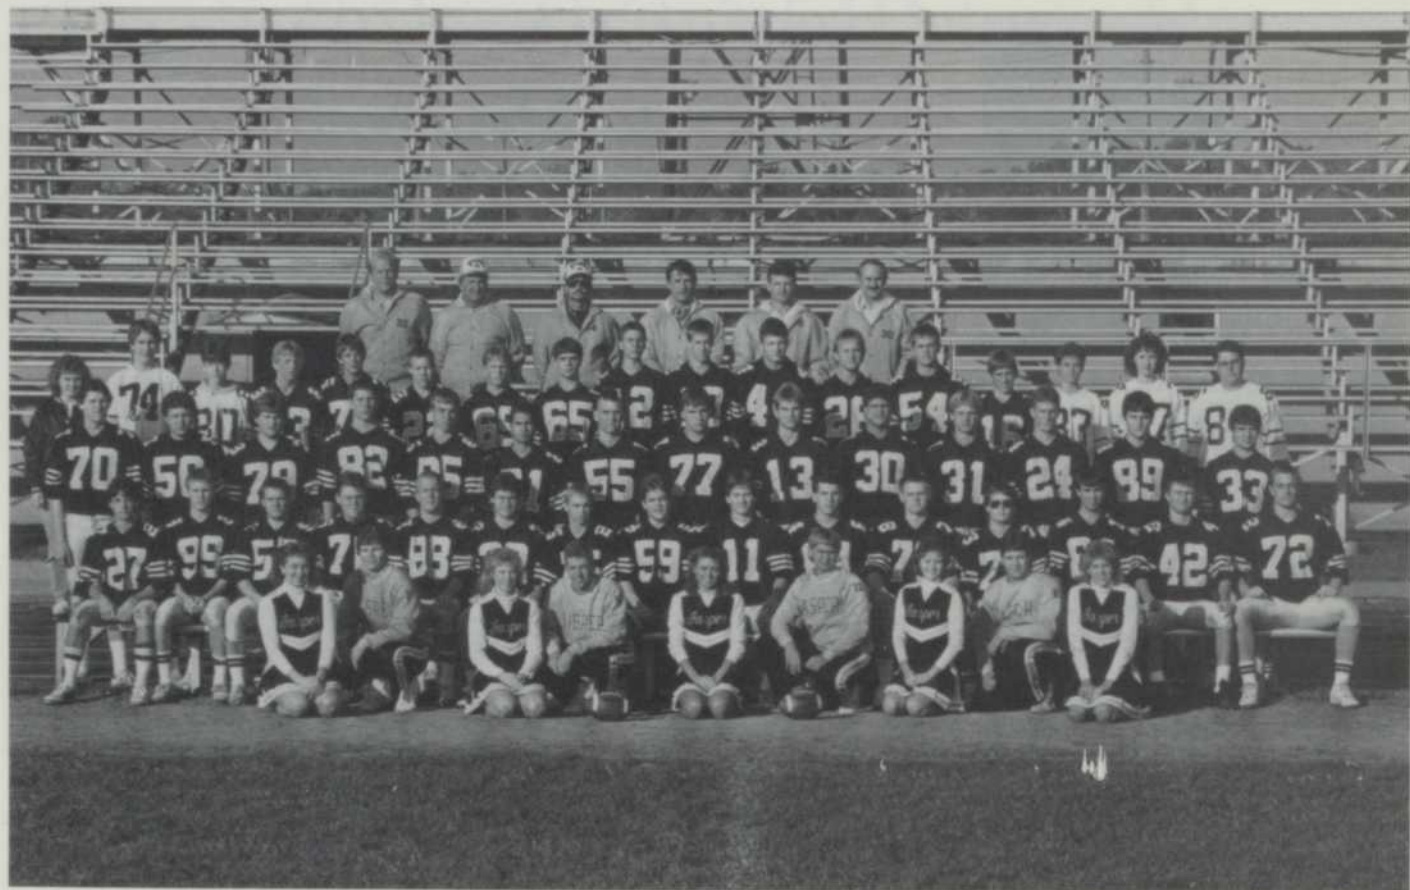

The girls take a break and smile for the camera.

Girls' cross country finished a close season with a 25-23 record. Not only did the girls improve during the season, but they had an excellent attitude and gave one hundred percent throughout the entire season. Coach Lents stated that the girls worked hard this past season and they were a pleasure to coach.

Kurt Hurst shoots the gap!

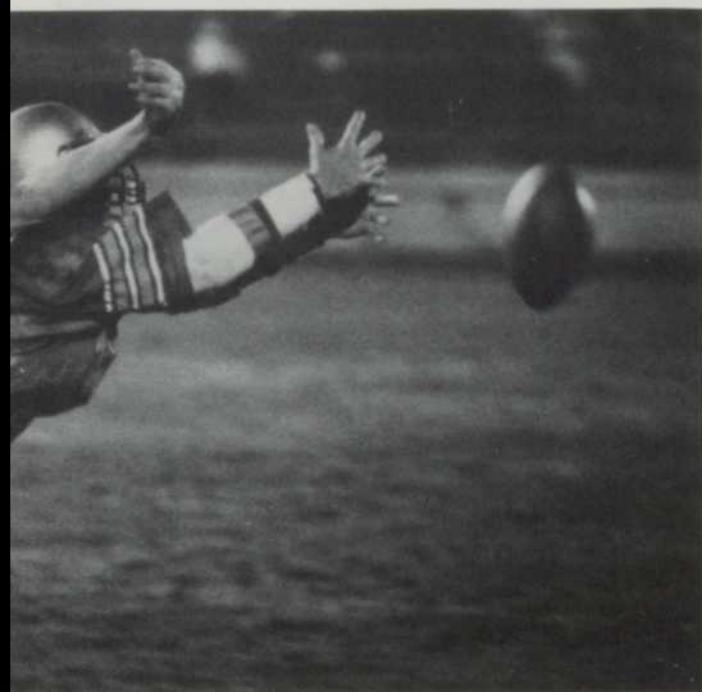

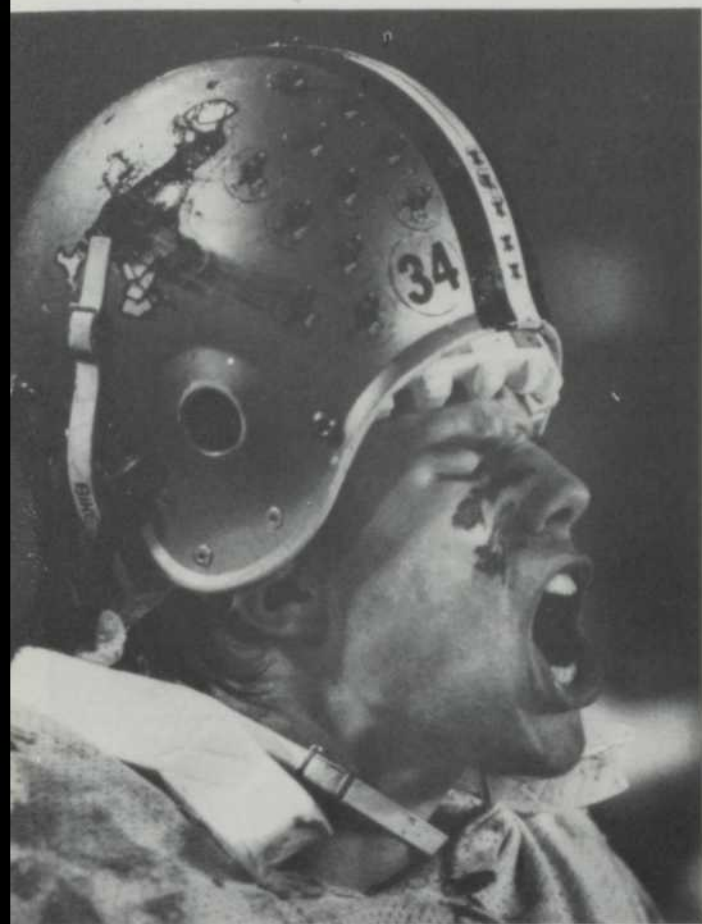

Chris Edwards discovers that the ball is always "Slippery When Wet"!

Wildcats have a conference!

The JHS varsity football team won the Big Eight Conference Championship with a 9 and 2 record. One loss came from Harrison in the Sectional finals and the other from Boonville in regular season play. The team not only made it to Sectional finals by beating the number one ranked team, Reitz, but they racked up a record setting eight shutouts and ended the season ranking third in the State. The defensive unit, led by Coach Rohleder, was the backbone which gave the offensive unit many excellent field positions. Six players, Keith Berger and Kenny Eckerle (offensive team), Greg Mathies, Chris Mathies, Brad Thomas, and Mike Waddell (defensive team), made the All-Conference team.

Tony Hurst boosts the morale of the offensive team.

Scott Eckert asks Brett Wininger and Jason Ahlbrand, "Have you heard the one about . . . ?"

Boys' Golf

A player gets ready to hit a wood.

Joe Schuler putts for par.

Staci Wehr and Denise Werne try to synchronize their swings.

Girls' Golf

Debbie Schuetter demonstrates to Karen Schnierle how it's really done.

Coach Paul East, Denise Werne, Julie Bellner, Karen Schnierle, Dana Vonderheit, and Staci Wehr.

The Girls' Golf team underwent a period of rebuilding, getting started with only three weeks left in the season. There were five team members, only one with previous experience.

The girls worked hard and displayed "a very good attitude," according to Coach East. There was no schedule, but Evansville Harrison agreed to give the team two matches before the Sectional.

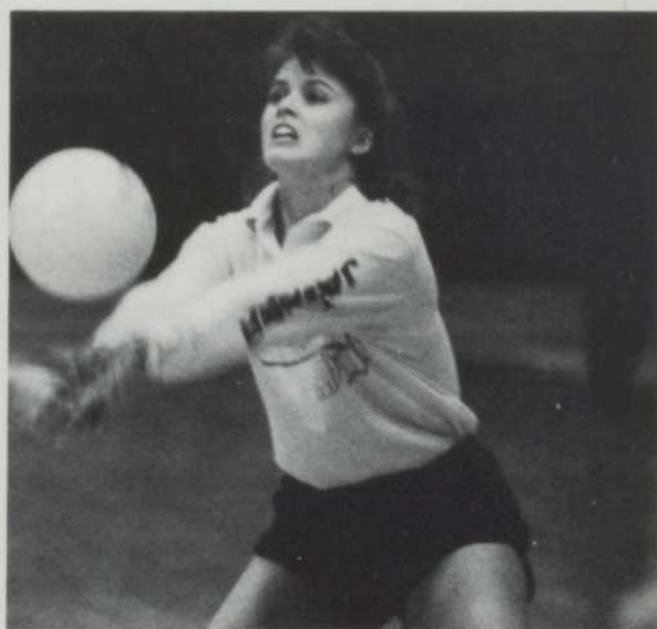

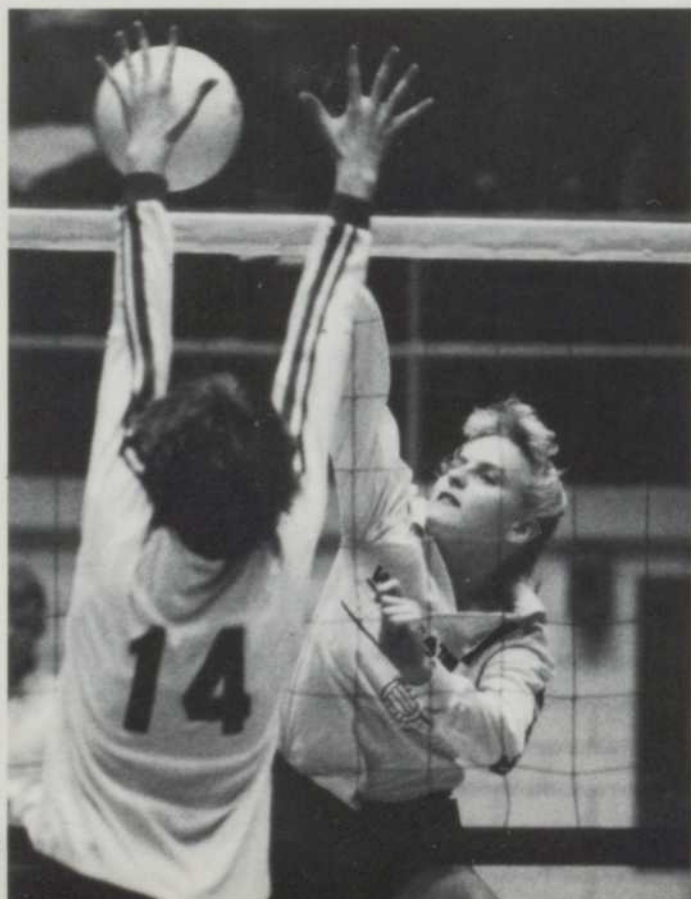

The primary goal for next year is a continuation of the program with a full schedule of matches.

Lady Cats Come Home Undefeated!

Marilyn Brosmer spikes the ball to score.

Dara Lehmkuhler struggles to bump the ball back to her opponent.

Volleyball

The 1986 Junior Varsity Volleyball Team finished its season with a shutout record of 17-0. The girls experienced the victories of beating Mater Dei and Castle teams and the triumph of winning the Forest Park JV Tourney. The team's most outstanding players were Nikki Litherland, with a one hundred percent serving average, Julie Heeke, with the most ace serves, and Denise Keller, with the best spiking and setting averages. Other key players were Melissa Greulich, Jane Nordhoff, and Stacey Eisenhut. Coach Joan Schaeffer stated that the girls' overall attitude toward work was excellent, and they were always willing to learn new skills and try new drills. Coach Schaeffer stated that the girls were a hardworking group, and they were a pleasure to work with.

Marilyn Brosmer and Kim Stenftenagel congratulate each other on a set that was very rewarding.

The Wildcats "Loved" Their Winning Season

Brian Freyberger shows us his imitations of He-Man.

With complete confidence, Phil yells, "In your face, buddy!"

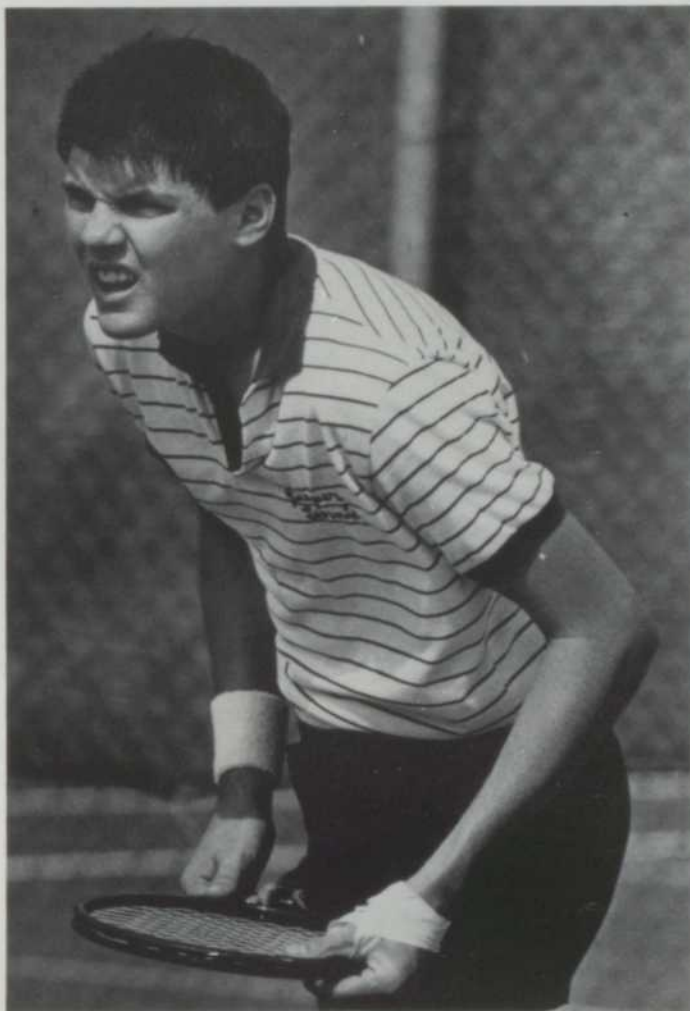

Scott reflects, "The day was going well until my Odor Eaters stopped working!"

Scott Yarbrough exclaims, "You mean I actually hit the ball?"

Mr. Yarbrough, coach of the boys' tennis team, said that their main goal was to make the State Finals. Although the goal was not completed, the boys finished the season undefeated 15-0, Big 8 Champs, and Sectional winners. Overall, Coach Yarbrough was very proud of his team.

Practice keeps Todd Flick on his toes.

Varsity Girls' Basketball

The 1986-87 Girls' Basketball team accomplished their goal by ending the season with a winning record. The team this year was led by outstanding shooting from the outside by Lisa Ernst, Tara Bayer, and Sheila Bieker. Their attack was balanced by the shooting and rebounding of Molly Niehaus and Kristie Rolan. The seniors, Kerry Klem and Debbie Schuetter, became the backbone of the team and provided the leadership needed for a successful season.

After the girls smashed the NE Dubois Jeeps in the first round of the Sectional, they suffered a heart-breaking loss to Southridge. The team has just begun and should have another fine season next year.

Molly Niehaus studies the rim, while ignoring the crowd, as she prepares to make a free throw.

While Denise Keller stretches to follow through on her free throw shot, Melissa Greulich, Linda Stenftenagel, and Susan Opel prepare to make the rebound during the JV game against Mt. Vernon.

Soaring for the lay-up, Tara Bayer, scores two during action against NE Dubois.

Stacie Eisenhut breaks away and races down the court for the "two-pointer."

JV Girls' Basketball

The JV Girls Basketball team was a combination of talented freshmen and sophomores. There was a variety of talent and a combination of various skills which produced a winning team. The leaders were the sophomores, Jane Nordhoff and Linda Stenftenagel.

This was the last year for Coach Joyce Brandt. She will be greatly missed by the girls as a coach and a friend.

Frosh Melissa Greulich played guard and was responsible for handling the ball.

Freshman Basketball

The 1986-87 Freshman Basketball program was successful, because players concentrated on winning not as individuals but as a team. The team achieved its goals of winning at least sixty percent of its games and defeating all county teams played. The overall record was 20-9 with runner-up status in the Big 8 Tourney.

Coach Terry Tucker stated that players "learned the value of playing the game hard and being unselfish." Team mottos were "Don't be a loser," and "Work hard, play smart, have fun!"

Victory Is Our Middle Name!

Front row, left to right: Ann Seifert—student manager, Chris Nelson, Brett Wining, Mike Bell, Scott Yarbrough, Sherri Henke—student manager. Middle row: JV Coach Phil Wendel, Var. Asst. Coach Denny Lewis, Klay Kress, Doug Wining, Doug Aders, Steve Hoffman, Paul Hedinger, Kent Weisheit—student manager, Head Coach Ed Yarbrough. Back row: Phil Mehringer, John Buechlein, Randy Bauer, Mike Ficker, Max Verkamp, and Jason Lents.

"The sign of a good team is its ability to learn from weaknesses and survive the tough times of a season." That is the attitude with which Coach Ed Yarbrough approached the basketball season, and indeed the team players lived up to his expectations. The season record, 12-9, showed an improvement over the '85-'86 record. The squad finished second in the Big Eight Conference. Not only was the team able to accomplish many goals, but also the players worked well with each other. The team's spirit and enthusiasm to win was always apparent.

Brett Wining anxiously dribbles the ball down the court in hopes of making a basket for his team.

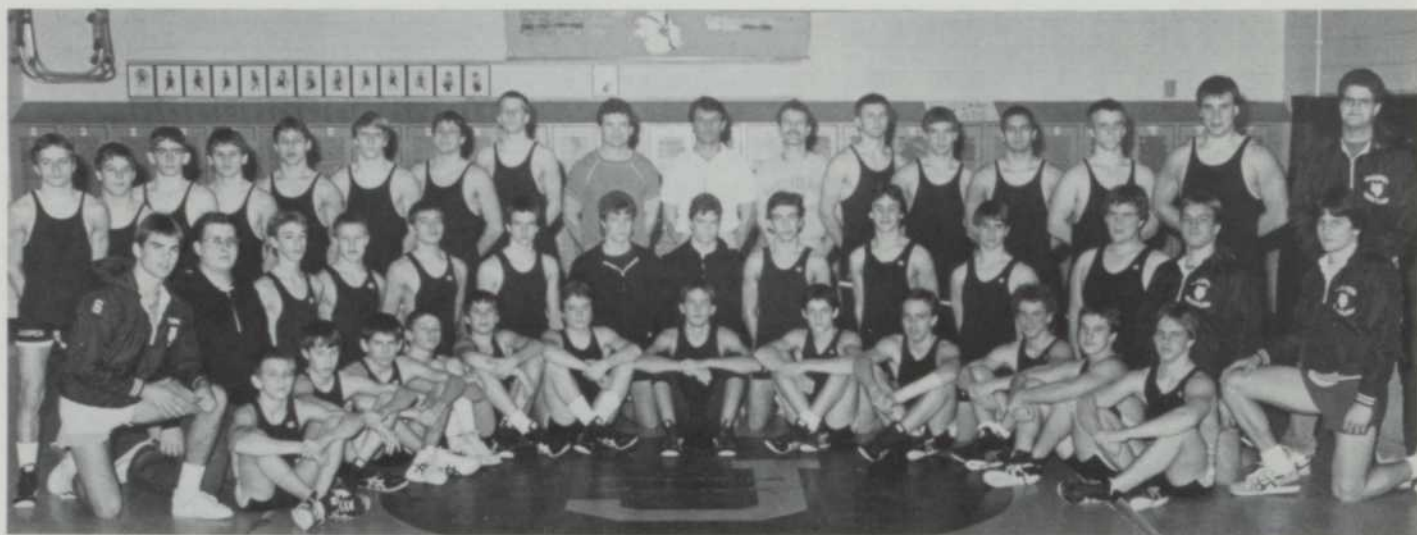

Phil Mehringer slips a pass around his opponent.

Chris Nelson tries to lose his opponent so he can dribble down the court and "shoot a three pointer."

Chris succeeds in his task and heads toward the basket.

Wrestlers Enjoy 'Great Year,' Go Undefeated

Jim Halbleib looks to the coaches for a word of advice before he prepares to defeat his opponent.

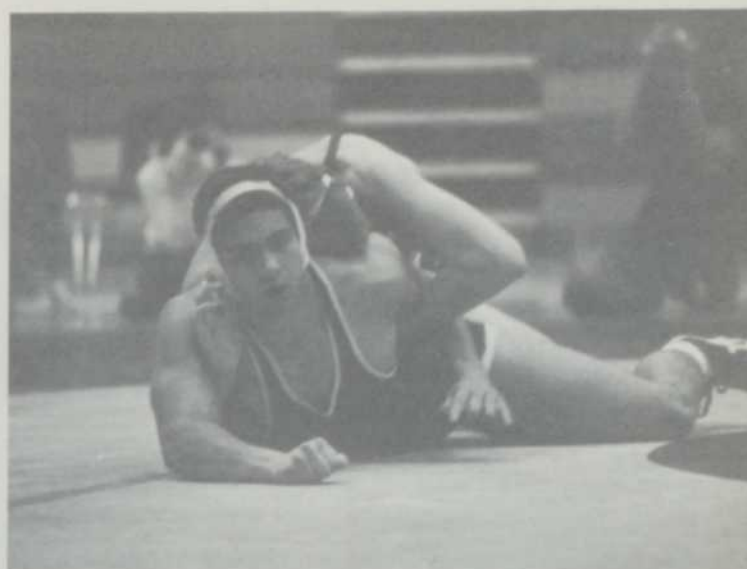

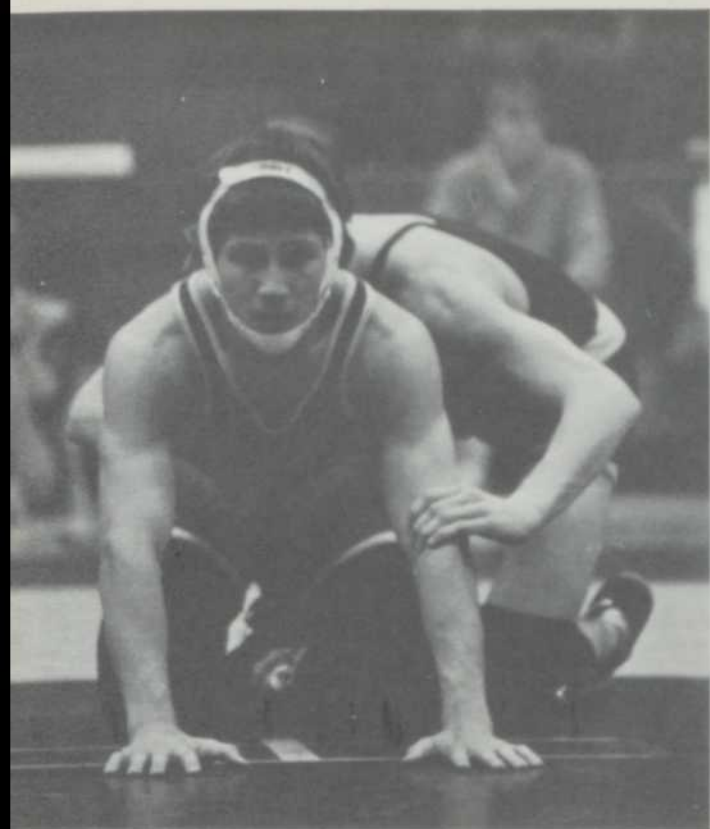

Coach Joe Rohleder's goals for the wrestling year were to be undefeated, to win the Big 8 Conference, to win the Sectional and Regional, and to send some boys to the State Finals. All goals, except winning the Regional, were accomplished.

The team's overall record was 17-0-1. Outstanding individual accomplishments included Greg (Spunky) Mathies having an undefeated regular season and placing fourth in the State. Charlie Tagliareni and Jacob Rohleder also qualified for State.

Five wrestlers qualified for Semi-State. Of the thirteen wrestlers who were in the Conference tournament, all placed in the top four. Twelve of the thirteen placed first or second in Sectional.

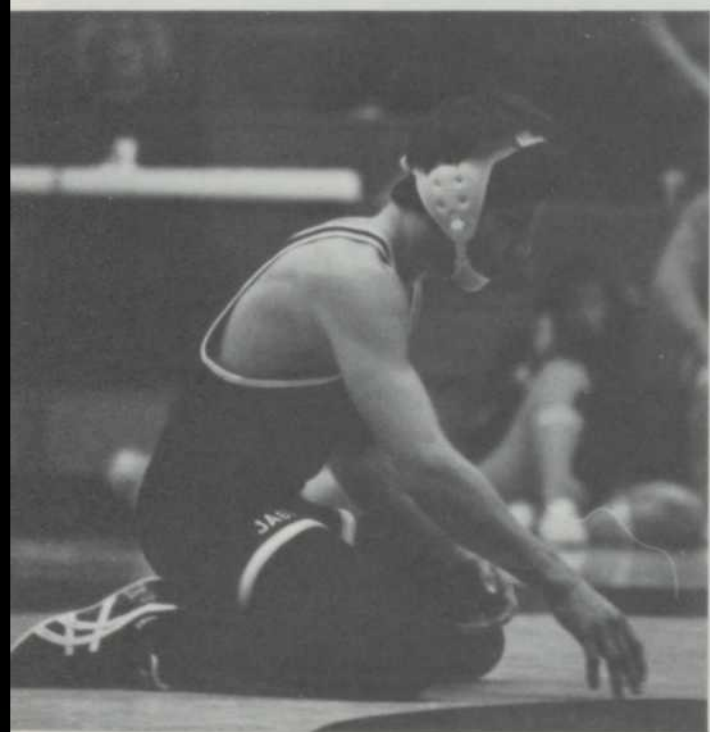

Sean Kaiser and Brian Schuetter served as captains. An "excellent attitude" was displayed, and a "great year" was had, according to Coach Rohleder.

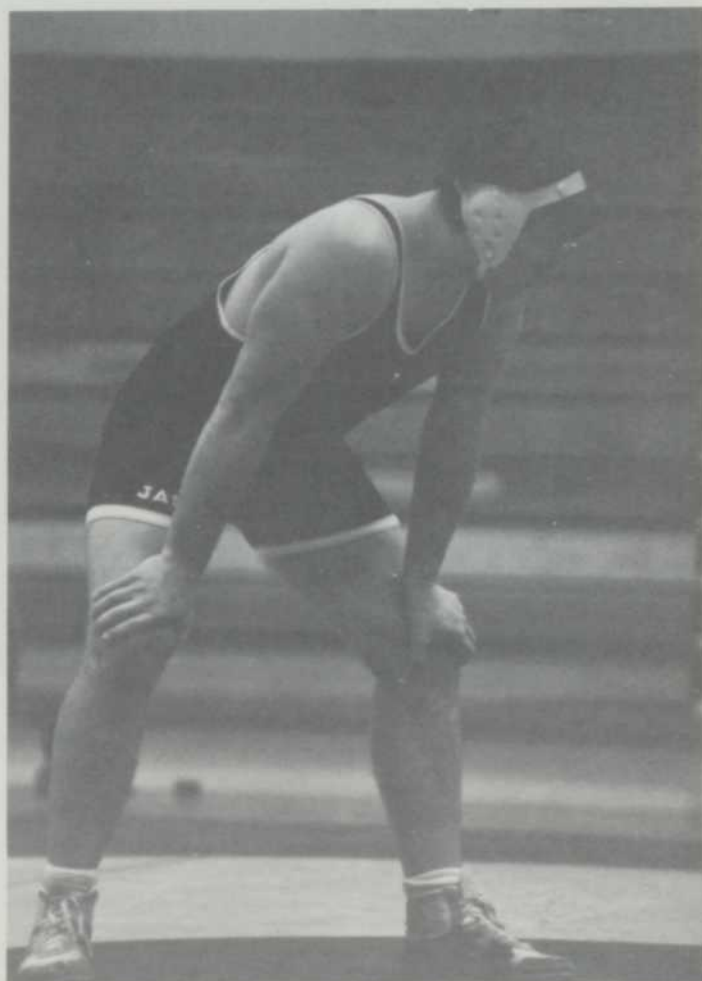

Chad Hurm finds himself in a rather tight situation and is in deep thought wondering where his next move lies.

Sean Kaiser mentally prepares himself while in the referee's position.

Sean Kaiser maps out his strategy "on the mat."

Girls' Track

After a rough season of not playing well, the Wildcat baseball team finished the season with a 17-17 record.

The Cats were able to pull together for tournament time. On the semi-state level they were defeated by Evansville Central (8-7) in the final game.

For the 1987 season, Todd Krapf (pitcher) was named the most valuable player, most valuable senior, received the pitching award, was named to the South All-Star team, and was named Honorable Mention All-State. Offensive awards went to Phil Mehringer and Mike Waddell. Mark Henke and Mike Waddell received the defensive awards. The mental attitude award went to Mike Waddell.

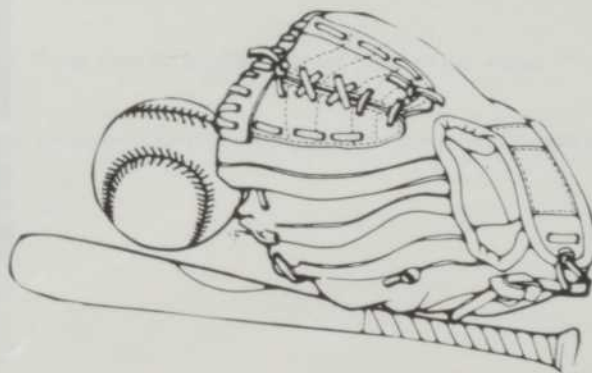

Blake Krueger and Todd Krapf meet at the pitcher's mound before game time.

Warm-up takes place before the afternoon game of the semi-state.

Coach Gobert and Coach True share comments.

Goodbye, Mr. Lythgoe:

The J-Staff takes this opportunity to recognize Mr. Robert Lythgoe, who is completing his career as a member of the JHS English Department. He has spent the last twenty-nine years teaching not only English and Literature, but French, Speech, Journalism, Indiana History, World History, and Physical Education as well.

His students have quickly discovered that he enjoys reading and fishing. He extends these hobbies into reading aloud, telling stories about what he's read, but especially telling fish stories! Mr. Lythgoe is indeed a man who, over the past years, has set high standards for his students. Hundreds—thousands—of them have enjoyed his good-natured spirit. Although his scowls and shouts may have intimidated the meek, those who've had the privilege of calling him their teacher surely realize that his genuine concerns have been in their best interests.

As Mr. Lythgoe leaves us, we have fond memories of all he has done. We wish him well in his retirement years. We thank him!

President—Sean Jochum
 Vice-president—Brian Voges
 Secretary/Treasurer—Karla Boyles

The main goal of the Freshman Class this year was "to get as many people as possible involved in school activities. We think the freshmen really enjoyed their first year here, and it was a change for everyone."

Organizations

The many organizations at JHS allow students to become involved. JHS is credited with having high-standing clubs whose members work hard throughout the year to achieve outstanding goals.

Student Council

First Row: Mr. Elmer Brames—advisor, Ann Lechner—treasurer, Kenny Eckerle—president, Joe Schuler—vice-president, Coletta Dugan—secretary. Second Row: Kevin Voges, Sean Kaiser, Kelli Helming, Clare Backer, Jane Mundy, Donna Street, Gordon Mehringer, Staci Wehr, Tammy Giesler. Third Row: Mike Ficker, Mark Mendel, Chris Klem, Scott Yarbrough, Beth Stenftenagel, Annette Schwenk, Chad Hurm, Pryce Arvin. Fourth Row: Troy Robinson, Jason Ahlbrand, Pam Schnarr, Kristin Geiger, Tara McNelis, Kristy Wessel, Heather Himsel, Mark Sutton, Dave Bartley, Richie Crawford. Fifth Row: Debbie Keusch, Nikki Litherland, Kim Wehr, Julie Bellner, Melanie Humbert, Amy Stallings, Pam Mehringer, Glenn Durcholz, Brian Voges. Sixth Row: Brad Hudson, Craig Greulich, Sean Jochum, Melissa Pickett, Ron Wagner.

Our Student Council helps Jasper High School function properly. During the 1986-87 year, the Student Council accomplished many goals. The school year began with sponsorship of the Freshman Orientation and the Freshman Dance. Football pep rallies, football and basketball homecomings, and work activities at the basketball games lent support to our sports programs. Projects such as class officer elections, the MORP, Homecoming, and Christmas dances, and the making of the Cat Caller showed the Council's work in leadership and in the social aspect of school life. Student Exchange programs with area schools and participation in the Walk-a-Thon for the March of Dimes were efforts at becoming acquainted with community needs. The Secret Teacher project was also a part of what made the '86-'87 Student Council so successful.

The Council's fund-raising projects helped to provide money to meet expenses, to pay for various student activities, and to grant scholarships at the end of the year.

Jasper High School's welfare is bettered with the leadership and good citizenship exhibited by the Student Council members. The Council, affiliated with the Indiana Association of Student Councils, was sponsored by Mr. Elmer Brames.

SADD

SADD's main purpose is to save lives! The goal of the group is to make young people aware of the dangers of drinking and driving. In order to reach this goal, the club has sponsored community alcohol awareness programs. For those who have concerns about drinking and driving, the SADD programs can offer great help.

The club's major fund raiser was sponsoring Jasper High School's first New Year's Eve Dance. SADD was also involved with other holiday events and with homecoming activities. Just prior to graduation, posters which were displayed throughout the school presented powerful messages and graphic illustrations about the results of drunk driving.

The main purpose of the Jayteens is to help its members develop leadership and responsibility through hard work. The Jayteens, a youth organization affiliated with the Jasper Jaycees, works with the Jaycees on a number of projects throughout the year: Kimball Picnics, Scholarship Fund Drive, Christmas Dance, Sommerfest, Strassenfest, Summer Dance, and Toga Dance. A special project for this year's Jayteens was landscaping areas of the high school grounds. The Jayteens also entertained senior citizens and handicapped individuals at the Providence Home and the Jasper Nursing Center. For such efforts, the club received the "Most Outstanding Youth Assistance Award." The individual work each member does helps that member gain points to better his chances of winning a scholarship his senior year. Any one Jayteen could receive up to $1000 toward his college education.

Jayteens

The Jayteenettes are affiliated with the Jasper Jaycee Women headed by Juanita Boehm and Liz Boehman. Under President Kerry Klem's direction, the Jayteenettes had a successful 1986-1987. Their involvement with the Jasper Sommerfest and Strassenfest has helped them a great deal. Other social activities such as the Pizza Dance, Kimball picnics, and Jaycee Raffle have helped the Jayteenettes become a better community club. The March of Dimes Walk-A-Thon and Christmas caroling at nursing homes and the Providence Home helped them to become recognized as an outstanding club. Jayteenettes, keep achieving your goals! Keep up the good work!

Marching Band

The highlight of the year for the 1986-1987 Marching Band was its trip to the Citrus Bowl in Orlando, Florida. The trip was during Christmas Break. The Band earned second place in its class for its performance. Members also spent several days sight-seeing around the Orlando area.

Also during the year, the Band won Division I ratings in District and Regional contests for the seventeenth straight year.

Band Officers and Band Council

This year's band officers were Christie Schwartz—treasurer, Pam Messmer—assistant treasurer, John Slayton—vice-president, Doug Freyberger—president, Kristi Helming—secretary, and Crissy Pandelieff—historian.

The Band Council includes all Band officers, one representative from the freshman, sophomore, and junior classes, and two representatives from the senior class. Each year the Council helps organize and carry out many band activities. This year's fund raising projects included the annual Florida citrus fruit sales and the magazine sales.

Symphonic Band

The Symphonic Band, the "top" band at JHS, consists of 43 members who have been selected through auditions. Throughout the year, several concerts are played for the entertainment of band parents and the public. This year First Division Ratings were achieved at Castle High School. Mr. James Holler directs the band.

The Concert Band operates on many of the same principles as the Symphonic Band. Under the direction of Mr. Fred Collins, these 36 members won Second Division Ratings at their contest.

Pep Band

The Pep Band plays at basketball games and at pep sessions to help generate school spirit.

Staci Apple looks for a friend while Chad Helming and David Drew admire the trophy.

Band Director Mr. Fred Collins tells the band it was a job well done.

Jodi Bruggenschmitt practices her clarinet.

Winter Guard

The Winter Guard competed in national finals for the first time in its history. The Guard also presented the pregame show at the IHSAA Boys' Basketball State Finals. These performances in Chicago and Indianapolis highlighted the year for the Winter Guard.

The Guard is considered part of the band, but members use flags and rifles instead of instruments. Tina Marie DeKemper helped the group coordinate routines to music, and Garry Sprinkle and Phil Fleming advised the group.

Seniors

Key Club

The JHS Key Club is an affiliate of Kiwanis International. Under the direction of Mr. Paul East, the group works year-round. This year the members helped with the Kiddie Carnival, the March of Dimes Telethon, Fourth of July fireworks stands, and the Strassenfest Track Race, and they sponsored a summer dance, Christmas dance (with three other clubs), and a Spring Break dance. In May, 26 members attended the State Convention in Indianapolis where the club won two state level awards. Overall, the Jasper club ranked second out of nearly 65 clubs in the state. Seven members will be traveling to Toronto, Canada, for the International Convention.

HOSA

Officers of HOSA are Stacy McElhiney—president, Tracey Schuetter—vice-president, Paula Harville—Secretary, and Kim Siddons—treasurer. Other JHS members are Audrey Rudolph, Suzanne Eckstein, Dana Rasche, Christy Sermersheim, Jackie Elliott, and Cynthia Jaent. There are several students from other county schools in the class. It is taught by Mrs. Betty Fromme.

HOSA is affiliated with state and national organizations, and the group's president, Stacey McElhiney served as state treasurer this year. Among special projects conducted by the group were selling Tom Watt Showcase items and homemade foods to cover costs of field trips. They visited Providence Home and nursing homes at Christmas, and they hosted a Halloween party on child safety at Rainbow World Daycare Center. Other activities included helping with the Riley Children's Hospital and March of Dimes Telethons, assisting in the Red Cross Blood Drives, and competing in a HOSA Bowl at Ben Davis. During the second semester, on-job training experience was gained in hospitals, dental and doctor offices, veterinary clinics, and nursing homes.

Varsity Choir

To sing and have fun were the goals of the newly formed Show Choir. Tina Marie DeKemper helped these singers choreograph modern dances to accompany Broadway numbers and other show tunes. Popular hits of the 30's, 40's, 50's, and 60's were also part of the Show Choir's repertoire. Performances were jazzed up with the sophisticated look of the girls' black and gold dresses and the guys' tuxedos.

The Varsity Choir concentrated its talents in the area of sacred, classical, and contemporary music. Tuxes and red dresses with white collars lent an air of formality to the choir's presentations.

The main goals of the Cadet and Freshman Choirs were to develop and practice singing skills and to provide a building program for the Varsity and Show Choirs. Choir Director was Mr. Jeff Jessee.

In front: Kim Lukemeyer, Adrienne Schnarr, Coletta Dugan, Angie Bauer, Ann Verkamp, Jason McCune, Kerry Klem. In back: Brian Drew, David Bartley, Sean Kaiser, Crystal Schneider, Chris Klem, Brian Witsman. Not pictured: Shyla Willis, Barbie Nonte.

Pops Concert

Each year the choir brings out the best of their talent to perform at the Pops Concert. Members perform the latest hits to the hits of yesterday. Jason McCune, David Bartley, and Brian Drew became ZZTop for the night when they performed the "Velcro Fly." Dana Lautzenhiser was more serious during her solo. Carter Cates played keyboard for the band "41 Stories" which provided the music for the concert.

The Sound of Music

The cast of The Sound of Music successfully recreated the era of the World War II. Approximately thirty-five people worked eight weeks to bring the production together. With appropriate costumes and props, the cast was able to capture the feelings associated with Hitler's World War II Germany.

Brian Witsman and Jon Hollis worked hard at the audio and visual effects.

Brad Morgan, Kurt Morton, and Jason McCune and Sherry Jahn, Alice Wehrle, and Kerry Klem act and sing with the rest of the cast and crew.

JUNIOR ACHIEVEMENT is a business education program that teaches young people the basics of business and the benefits and principles of the private enterprise system. This year there were six companies with a combined total of 115 members. Average attendance for the year was 92%. JA advisor was Mr. Stan Jochum.

The J.H.S. Octagon Club experienced a quite successful, very active year. Club members worked with their sponsoring club, the Optimists, to carry out several service projects. Among these was the annual Blood Drive held in February. Students, staff, and community members contributed a number of units of blood.

The group also worked with the Optimists to man elephant ear stands at the Strassenfest, the 4-H Fair, and the Four Rivers Arts and Crafts Festival. Another service project was the Christmas party given for Providence Home residents. A film festival for children and the March of Dimes Phone-a-Thon rounded out the year.

Fund raising activities included car washes, bake sales, and jewelry sales. Money raised enabled the club to contribute to the Patoka Valley Center and to sponsor a student at Law Enforcement Camp. According to sponsors Brenda Hurm and Tom Schum, club members worked diligently all year and donated many hours of free time to worthwhile causes.

Junior Civitan

Traveling to Paoli Peaks to help with the Special Olympics Winter Games was a main project of the Junior Civitan. As time recorders, aides, and starters for the games, members offered support, encouragement, and smiles to the participants.

Another special project was the Radio-Thon chaired by Tom Mennerick and Crissy Pandelieff. Junior Civitan members answered phones, taking pledges to support the Dubois County Handicapped Day Camp. WBDC donated three hours of air time for local talents including XLNC and 41 Stories. A record $3600 was raised.

For Strassenfest, the club bought a dunking booth and set it up on the Square. Adults, teens, and kids who volunteered their time to sit in the booth helped members raise $900.

Members also handled ordering and delivering red, pink, and white carnations for friends and sweethearts throughout the school on Valentine's Day.

Mr. Del Steinhart advised the club and helped members continue in their tradition of willingness to work, a key to the club's long-standing success.

Speech and Drama

This year's major activity was sponsoring the fall play, "Tomb With a View." A children's play, "For the Love of a Worm," was also presented. WBDC aired a radio play "Don't Throw It Away" in which several members participated.

The club hosted a Halloween Dance to raise money to sponsor a speech meet. The club's purpose is to build confidence through improvement of oral communication skills.

Advisor Mrs. Overshiner discusses final play arrangements with Beth Riffel, student director, and Karen Neukam, stage manager.

"It's Lucien's head!" screams Dora.

The Jasper High School yearbook is created under the advice of Mrs. Clara Fromme and Mr. Robert McCarty. Through tedious hours of work, a yearbook can be completed by a dedicated staff. The J-Staff is different from every other club. Not only are members of the J-Staff asked to attend meetings every Monday, but they are asked to take their work with them and complete parts of it during their extra time. This is the point at which dedication becomes important. The members of the yearbook staff have committed themselves to the student body, faculty, and administration. They have committed themselves to the creation of a yearbook which everyone can enjoy for the rest of their lives.

This year's staff had the dedication to complete this yearbook and make it better than past years'. This staff has been responsible for creating the memories that we all treasure. We've made several improvements this year. To begin with, we put the seniors in color, hoping to start a long tradition. But color pages take extra money. To offset the extra money needed, we raised yearbook prices and ad prices. We have been striving to make the layout of pages more uniform and the copy more interesting.

This yearbook staff deserves a lot of credit. When you see members of the yearbook staff, thank them for the excellent work they have completed!

*denotes Section Editors

The senior section and organizations section are always important sections of the yearbook. They are the most difficult to get pictures for, but this year, through the hard work of Jana Giesler and Ron Wagner, these two sections have been completed diligently and excellently.

Pictures complete a yearbook. Staci Wehr and Tina Sander are both photographers and are shown here examining their work.

Mrs. Fromme and Mr. McCarty are a vital part of the yearbook staff. The advice they give is greatly appreciated and used by Stephanie Weisman and the entire staff.

Columbian Squires

The Columbian Squires, led by Mark Hochgesang, Chief Squire, is an organization for young men of the Catholic faith. Affiliated with the Jasper Knights of Columbus, the club undertakes several projects throughout the year. One of the main projects is a dance sponsored to help raise money for the scholarship fund.

In conjunction with the K of C, the Squires stress qualities needed for life outside of school. Among these are work, organization, and determination to succeed.

FFA

Future Farmers of America, a national organization for students enrolled in Vocational Agriculture, aims to develop agricultural leadership, citizenship, and cooperation. A special community service provided this year by the FFA was landscaping one acre of land around recently built tennis courts at Ireland. The club also provided corn stalks to the Jasper Merchants during their Harvest Days sales promotion.

Three fundraisers were a ten-acre school farm, "Aggie" sales, and Vitality seed sales. Proceeds were used to sponsor a Member-Parent banquet at which members and friends of the FFA were recognized with trophies, plaques, and scholarships.

Special Accomplishments

Matt Bueltel: Soils Judging; Livestock Judging; Tractor Trouble Shooting; Monsanto 2+2 Safety Kit sales (First Place).

Dean Buschkoetter: Soils Judging; Livestock Judging.

Alan Durcholz: Crops Judging; Tractor Trouble Shooting.

Ken Eck: State and National FFA Band; National FFA Band, Kansas City, Missouri.

Jeff Eck: District Welding Contest; Livestock Judging; Tractor Driving Contest (Third Place individual overall.)

Dean Fuhs: Crops Judging.

Matt Gehlhausen: Soils Judging; Star Chapter Agribusinessman; $100 FFA Scholarship.

Anthony Hoffman: Tractor Trouble Shooting (District and Section Champ; State Finalist); Soils Judging; Star Chapter Farmer District Welding Contest (Second Place); State Welding Contest

Mark Seitz: Crops Judging; Vitality seed and rose sales (First Place); "Aggie" sales (First Place).

Brad Wehr: Crops Judging (Sixth Place individual overall); Tractor Trouble Shooting; District Proficiency Winner Placement in Agriculture Production.

Jason Whitsitt: Crops Judging

Doug Winger: Tractor Trouble Shooting (District and Section Champ; State Finalist).

Comet Staff

The Comet newspaper staff was taught the skills of journalism by Mr. Larry LaGrange. The production of the Comet, five issues of 16-20 pages each this year, was carried out through class assignments. Each staff member wrote two or three stories to be considered for each issue. School related stories featured students and teachers, curriculum changes, the German students from Faust Gymnasium who visited a month, and sports stories. Local businesses placed ads; many offered discount coupons.

Income from ads and sales—50¢ per issue,—and profits from a January 17th dance were used to buy camera equipment and other supplies, and to pay for costs of field trips.

The American Scholastic Press Association voted the Comet a first place rating, and the Indiana High School Press Association ranked the paper "outstanding." The Herald recognized writers for their best articles at the Awards Day program in May. The Comet's staff was excellent, if small, this year, and its professional-looking newspapers kept the school and community well informed.

German Club

Under Mrs. Mary Jo Meuser's direction, the JHS German Club accomplished many things. The main goal of the club was to obtain money to help enable twenty students to travel to Freiberg, West Germany, from May 29 through June 27. To finance this, a Thanksgiving Dance was held, and members sold imported German candies and Advent calendars. Another fundraiser was a car wash.

Two members of the club, Jutta Eisenring, an exchange student from Germany, and Othmar Rickenbacher, an exchange student from Switzerland, helped others understand some aspects of European culture. They both spent their senior year at JHS. A special dinner at Heichelbechs rounded out the year for the German Club.

Mat Club and Auxiliary

The Mat Club and Auxiliary are set up to help the wrestling team. Funds are raised by sponsoring Concession Sales at all home meets. The Homecoming Dance was also a source of income. Money is used for summer camp, an open house, a wrestling banquet, and jackets and shirts. At the end of the year, wrestlers of outstanding merit are recognized. The Mat Club and Mat Club Auxiliary support the goals of the wrestling teams in whatever ways are needed.

Freshmen

Damien Hopster is fascinated by the leaves.

Shelly Wuchner watches Andrea Kress and Mike Keown exchange friendly looks.

Scott Schneider tries to awaken Steve Senninger.

Carl Eckert and senior Krisi Quiroga discover the difficulties in escaping from school.

You can tell Pat Giesler is sleeping because his mouth is shut. The only problem is his eyes are open.

Laura Bell gives lessons on cutting paper.

We caught Aaron Seals dressing on the way to class.

Greg Dunn observes "He-Men" Mr. Wes Settle and Bert Bunner in action.

S o p h o m o r e s

Chris Kiefer and Kristy Prechtel work hard typing captions for the yearbook.

Amy Beckman is deep in thought.

Liz Kendall and Tina Kluemper walk up the stairs and are caught by the camera.

Stephanie Castle uses gestures to help tell her story in the cafeteria.

David Quiroga and band members set up for their grand march.

Dane Patterson asks Miss Light a question.

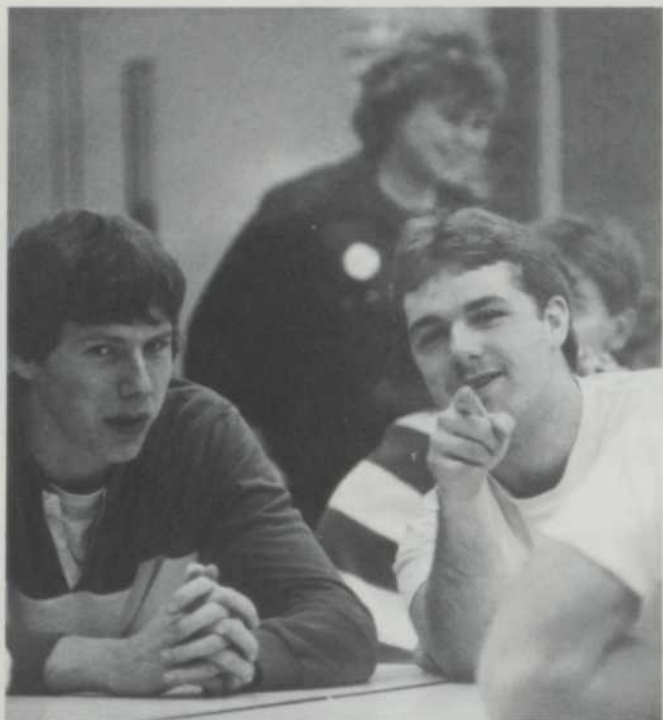

Lara Conner is caught wondering what will happen next.

Michelle Lindsay listens intently to a friend.

"Now this is excitement," says Jill Erny, sitting at the lunch table.

You know Phil Wagner and Larry Schmitt are up to something when they point their fingers at someone else.

Kenny Herzog looks for an escape while Brad Schwenk supervises.

Juniors

Charlie Tagliareni shows his irresistible smile.

Kurt "Wang" Wanninger pleads with the teacher for another assignment.

Lab partners, Kristi Rolan and Chris Rasche, check their fruit flies in Advanced Biology.

Seniors

Donna Street has her doubts about J.P. Brons' last remark.

Mark Hochgesang flashes a casual smile.

Jane Mundy and Donna Street present the outcome of their sectional spirit.

Kevin Voges shows his outrageous mouth.

Seniors

"This better not be printed!" remarks Chris Kress.

Donna Street gets caught doing something in the girls' room.

Someone caught Krisi Quiroga at her own game.

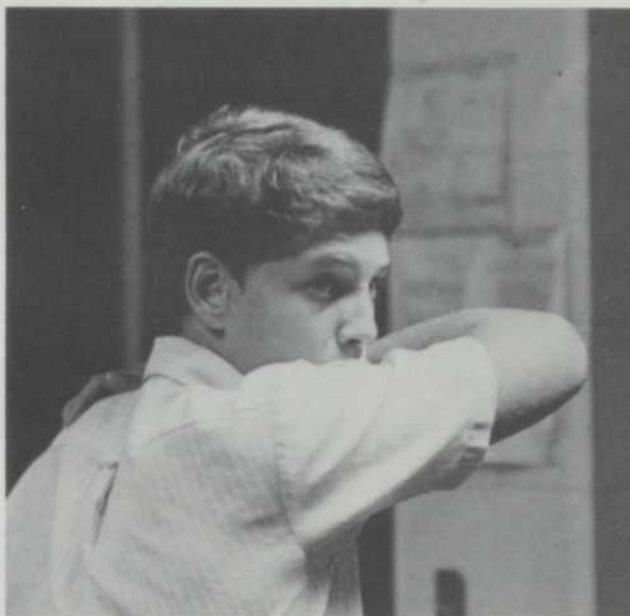

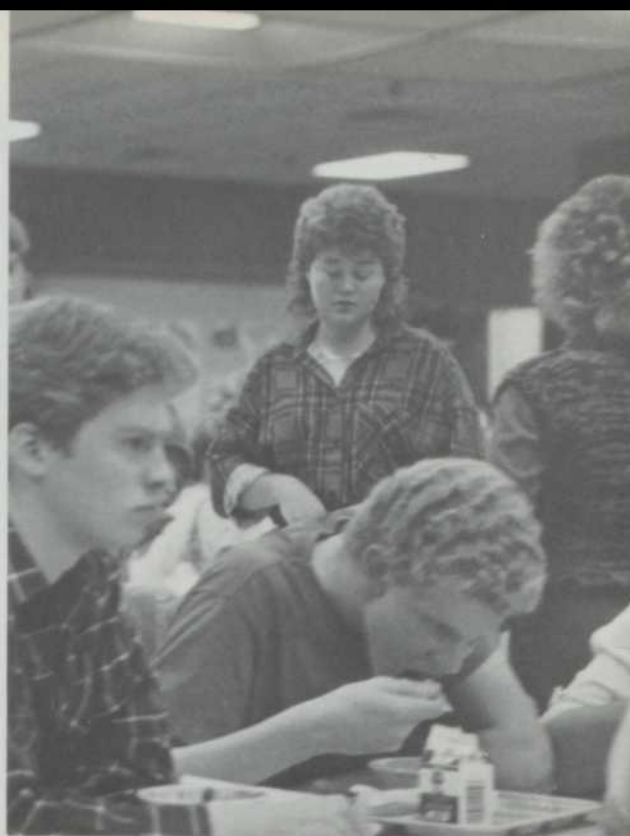

J.P. Brons listens to "one" of Crissy Pandelieff's logical remarks.

"There's no way this chick's eating that food!" says Debbie Schuetter.

"Dream on!" says Mrs. T. when Spunky begs for the answers.

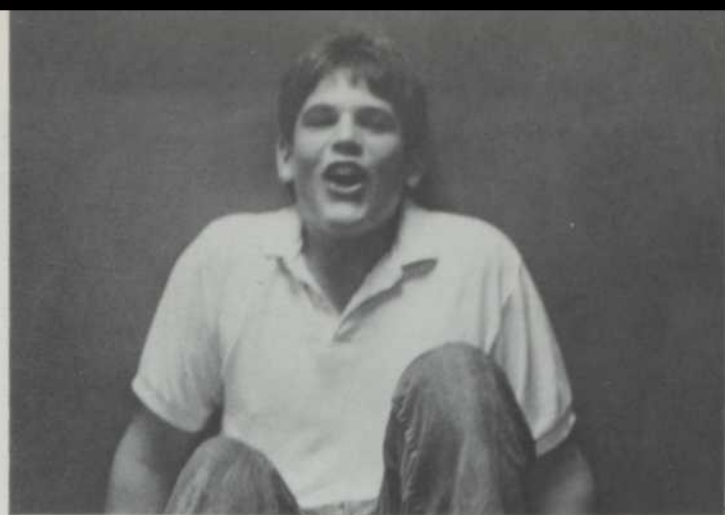

Just when Kim thought eating with Leo was bad, she saw her food move.

I think I'm sure! But Chad Helming takes a whiff just in case.

What kind of childhood did Doug Freyberger have? Looks like he grew up to be Pee Wee's playmate.

Mike Kemker shows us the behavior of a typical freshman. He laughs now, but just wait and see how he turns out!

The band watches the earth move after one of their spectacular performances.

Does Chris Friedman enjoy all his classes like this?

Wouldn't Janet Blessinger be mistaken for Molly Ringwald?

Could Pam possibly be thinking of something other than homework?

The office, the classroom, the hallway, the cafeteria, and the outdoors are all important to . . .

. . . Student Life

Is Jay Knies phoning home just to say "Hi, Mom!"?

Is this the side of Brad Thomas no one knows about? What is he pouring?

Seniors take charge in the hall decorating contest.

Kevin Huelsman impatiently waits for the rest of Jon Short's joke.

Band members proudly display their trophy at Reitz High School.

Junior girls create their own entertainment during lunchtime.

Seniors Kim Stenftenagel, Debbie Schuetter, and Clare Backer walk like Egyptians.

Kevin Voges thinks carefully before eating his food, while Mark Hochgesang is eager to sample his.

Senior Dance

Craig Hale said good-bye. Girls gave each other hugs. Some danced. Some stood and watched. It was all part of the Senior Dance.

Krisi Quiroga and Jana Giesler posed for one of their last high school snapshots.

Beth Riffel and friends danced the night away.

Pep Sessions

Seniors show their school spirit.

Mark Hochgesang and Kevin Voges give a Sectional chant RUN DMC style.

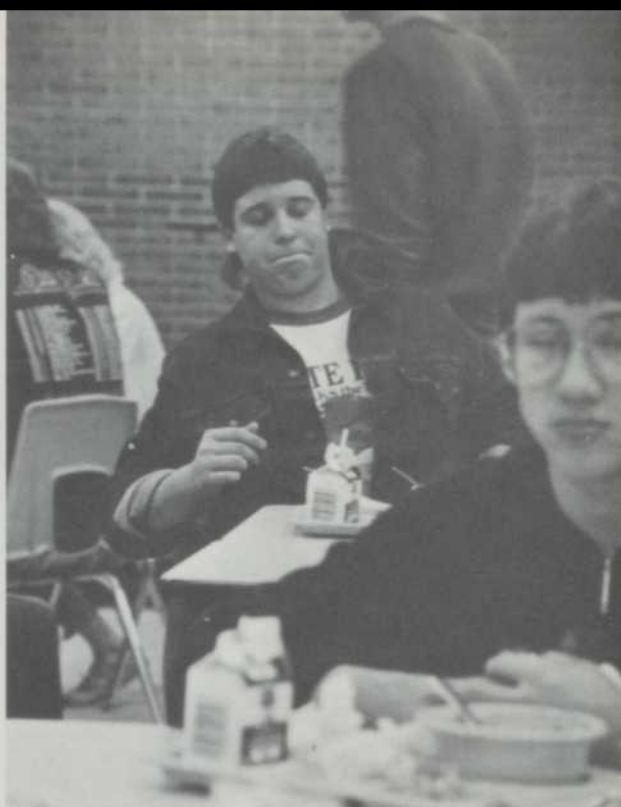

Dean Schneider shows his enthusiasm for the Sectional by having decorated his van.

A common cafeteria effect on students: Sean Kaiser looks on with a trace of indifference while Kevin Voges settles back to survey the situation.

J.P. shows us his Venezuelan charm. That dumb foreigner! Just joking—We love you, J.P.!

Carter Cates tries to convince Mr. Schuler to use his mouthpiece as a petri dish—it's got enough green gook growing on it!

Mr. Gobert donates not only to food drives. He also donates to poor furless animals in need of hair, as Evie McCoy shows here. Thanks, "Goby"—that's one less hairless animal on earth!

YAWN—"Yes, I'm listening," lies Pam Mehringer.

The Face Says It All!

"TGIF—Thank God It's Friday!" smiles Lara Conner.

Monte Kluemper is the new John Lennon appearing on David Letterman's "Late Night."

A true bookworm, Greg Heeke really gets into his books.

Kristi Helming practices her clarinet.

Brian Guillaume's mouth waters as Kelli Helming reads him a juicy note.

Freshmen always seem to be lost in the hallways.

A Typical Day

Some students really enjoy the school food.

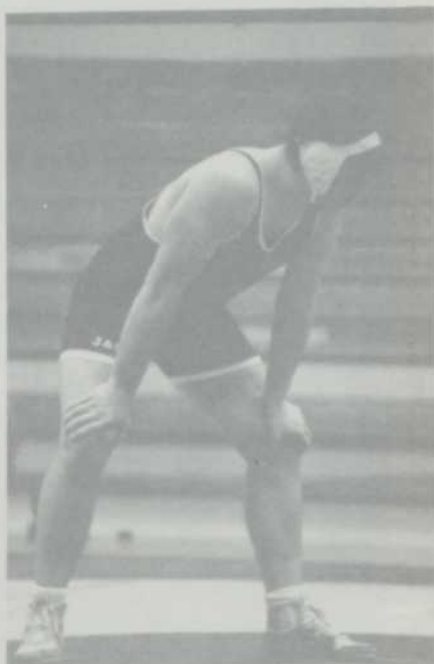

Mike Elliott puts the finishing touches on his wood project.

Kim Hoffman enjoys messing around with the keyboard.

Sports

Diver Christy Tagliareni shows her graceful ability in taking a dive.

Greg "Spunky" Mathies prepares for one of his matches. He remained undefeated.

The girls' basketball team paves the way to victory by running laps.

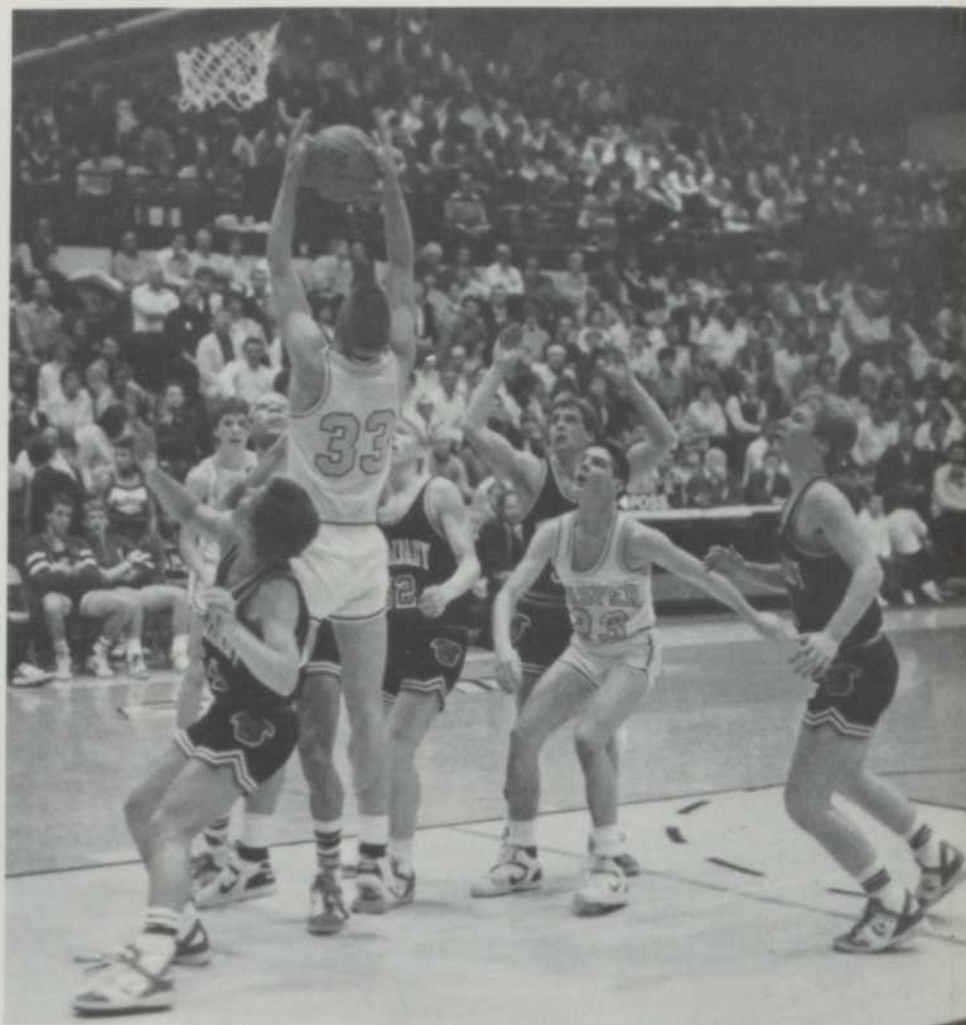

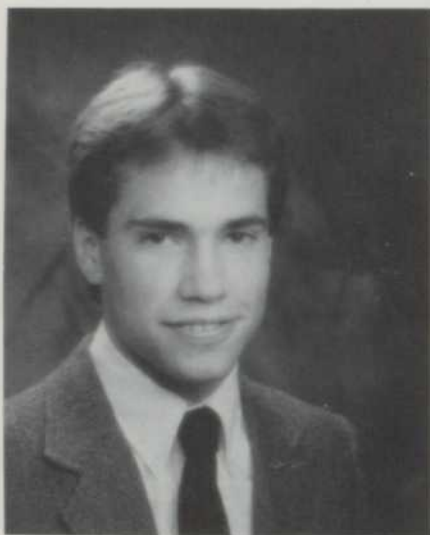

Brad Thomas kicks back for a short time out while Mike Waddell looks on.

Sports

Scott Yarbrough anxiously awaits a rebound in this game against New Albany.

The 1986-87 Most Outstanding Senior Boy Athlete is Phil Mehringer.

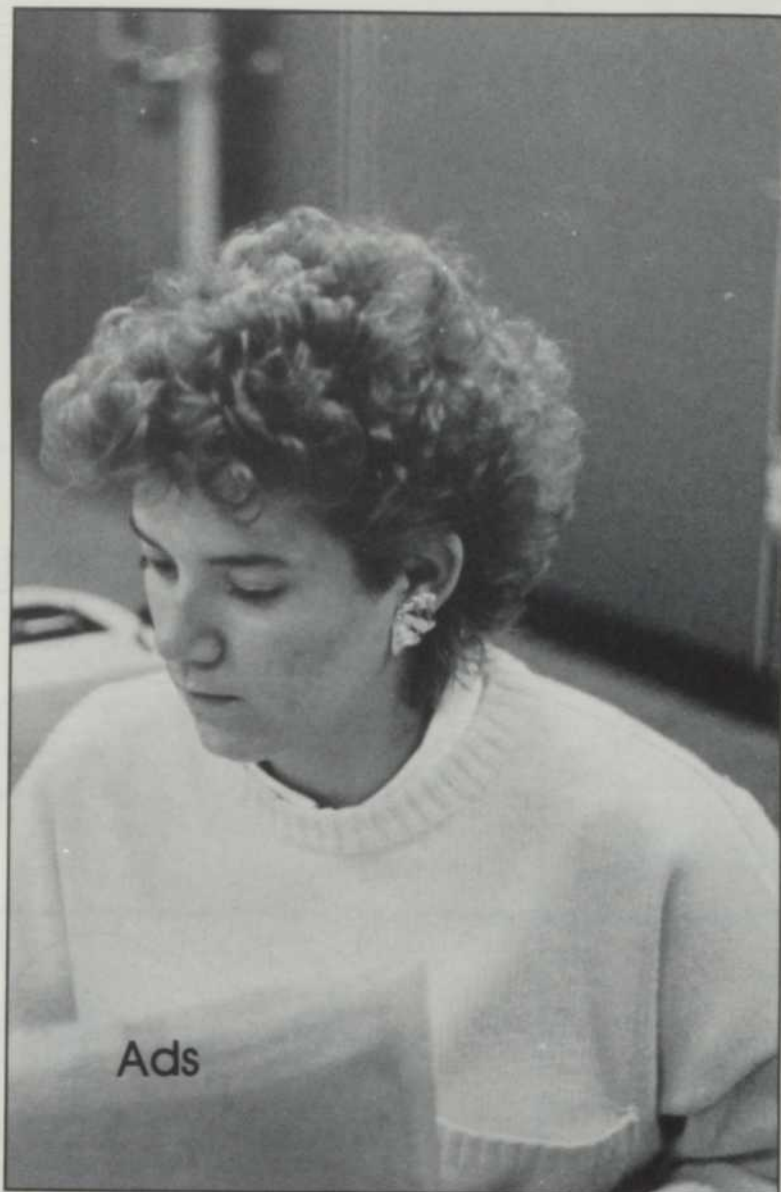

Marilyn Brosmer is the 1986-87 Most Outstanding Senior Girl Athlete.

Cheryl Rudolph and Vicki Keusch wait for a serve. Marilyn Brosmer stands in the background.

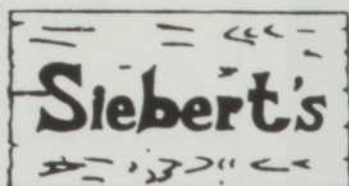

The Ads Section is what pays for the biggest part of the yearbook expenses. Tina Sander was responsible for completing this section, and she did an outstanding job. Through her hard work, this section really "paid off."

The Yearbook Staff every year compiles pictures, words, and artwork to form remembrances for each class.

The staff this year was able to reach new goals. I would like to thank the staff for its sincere efforts. Mrs. Clara Fromme and Mr. Robert McCarty need to be thanked by everyone, because through their support and guidance the making of a yearbook is a dream come true.

The staff would also like to thank Mrs. Brandt, Mrs. Voges, and Mr. Lechner. It is sometimes through their dedication that it seems the most difficult tasks can be accomplished.

I would also like to thank all the parents who put up with fellow staffers who put in extra hours and took their frustrations out at home. Also big thanks goes to parents of underclassmen who faithfully picked up their kids every week.

I must stress the responsibility that goes with putting a yearbook together. It takes group efforts to accomplish this task and to make a yearbook a treasure. I have definitely become responsible to this task, and I can only hope others after me will learn also.

I leave with the members of the yearbook staff a challenge for the future to improve the yearbook as greatly as possible. And the staff members who have graduated I thank greatly because without the support of my fellow classmates (especially Tina) I know things would have been impossible! GOOD LUCK TO ALL!

Thank you,
Stephanie Weisman, Editor
